* Manufacturers recommend replacing Dry Heat Medium every three months. Other time intervals may be specified.

Over time and with continued use, Dry Heat Medium breaks down and loses its original effectiveness. That's why manufacturers of dry heat therapy units recommend that the entire Dry Heat Medium be replaced every three months.

Therma-Cell™ Dry Heat Medium has been specially formulated for use in Fluidotherapy® and Thermo-Therapy units and is sold in two 5 lb. (2.3kg) pack-ages for easy replacement.
With regular changes of Therma-Cell™, your heat therapy unit will continue providing the highest possible level of therapeutic benefits for your patients.
